

Hesham Saleh, MBBCh, FRCSI, FRCS (ORL-HNS), IBCFPRS

Hesham Saleh is a consultant rhinologist/facial plastic surgeon at Charing Cross Hospital and the Royal Brompton Hospital in London and at his private practice in Harley Street since 2001. He is also an honorary senior lecturer at the Imperial College London.

He is Board Certified in Facial Plastic Surgery by the IBFPRS/EBFPRS and has been honored with the Claus D. Walter Award for Academic Excellence. In his practice, he operates exclusively on the nose with a particularly large number of complex and tertiary referral cases. Hesham is the President Elect of the European Academy of Facial Plastic Surgery (EAFPS) and current President of British Society of Facial Plastic Surgery (BSFPS). He is the Past President of the section of Rhinology in the Royal Society of Medicine (RSM) and holder of the W. J. Harrison Award for the greatest contribution towards advancement of knowledge in the section. Hesham is also an elected council member of the British Rhinological Society (BRS) and is the Chairman of the Editorial Board of Journal of ENT Masterclass

Hesham was listed by "The Times" as one of Britain's top 140 doctors and top 50 surgeons. He has also been listed by Tatler magazine as one of the top 30 cosmetic surgeons in the UK and one of the 2 best rhinoplasty surgeons. He has published over 100 peer-reviewed articles and 30 book chapters on rhinoplasty and rhinology and is a regularly invited speaker in worldwide. He lectures in rhinoplasty courses across the UK and is a co-director of the University College London Rhinoplasty Course.